

Falcon Lock Update

W501 Function Added to W Cylindrical Lock Series Offering

Description

Falcon Locks has added the W501 function to its offering on the popular Opening Price Point W series cylindrical locks. The W501 function is available on its versatile Dane and Quantum solid, pressure-cast zinc levers and the Hana and Elite knobs in five finishes.

W501

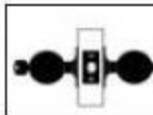

F82-2

Entry Lock

Push button locking. Button on inside locks outside lever until unlocked by key or by rotating inside lever. Closing door release push button and unlocks door. Inside lever always free.

W501

F82-2

Deadlock latchbolt.

The Falcon Grade 2 W series locks feature an interchangeable core that is compatible with SFIC products from other manufactures.

The W501 function applications include multi-family and retail dressing rooms.

The W501 function list price is the same as all other single key W functions.